
Christie can't go it alone in Trenton

Forging alliances becoming harder

By CARL GOLDEN • March 7, 2010

With a campaign a long way from over, Gov. Chris Christie is trying to get a political ally in Trenton.

Discharge of the bill is a key part of the state's budget. The bill is expected to pass in the Assembly, but it needs a vote in the Senate. Christie is looking for a Democratic ally in the Senate to support the bill. The bill is expected to pass in the Assembly, but it needs a vote in the Senate.
