April 13, 2022

Galloway, N.J. . The William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy and Atlantic County Advisory Commission on Women are cosponsoring a panel discussion on the lives of women who are homeless. The panelists are women who are homeless.

The event will be held from 4:30-6 p.m. Thursday, April 14, at the Stockton Atlantic City John F. Scarpa Academic Center, 3711 Atlantic Ave. Atlantic City. It is free and open to the public and will also be livestreamed on the Hughes Center website, stockton.edu/hughes-center.

The panel members are:

- John McLernon, Director, Social Services Atlantic County Dept. of Family & Community Development. (retired)
- Christine Zoda-Egizi, LCSW, Director of Atlantic Homeless Alliance & Justice Involved Services for Jewish Family Services
- Kay Petrecca, Community & Government Relations Representative at Atlantic City Rescue Mission, and a ACRM client
- Claudia Ratzlaff, CEO, Avanzar Center).

The William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy at Stockton University serves as a catalyst for research on public policy and economic issues facing southern New Jersey. The Center provides a forum for public discussion of policy issues to engage citizens and policy makers.

The Atlantic City Rescue Mission was founded in 1964 in Atlantic City. ACRM helps thousands of homeless and working poor people each year and is the largest provider of comprehensive services to about 25% of the homeless population in New Jersey.
